ANOTHER BOBBIN FACTORY

AND STILL ANOTHER MAY BE BUILT IN THE CITY.

Sherwood Bobbin & Manufacturing Company Organized and Will Begin Work Right Away—Fairly Definite Talk of Another Move of the Same Kind.

Present indications are that within a few years Greensboro will be a centre for the manufacture of bobbins. There is already one factory in operation here, a company has been incorporated and will begin building another one right away, and still another company is being gotten up. It is said that this last one is pretty certain, though all the arrangements are not yet completed.

The new company already formed has been incorporated by J. C. Marsh, M. G. Newell and Thomas Sherwood. Mr. Marsh, who has been manager of the factory at Ramsure for ten years, will be the manager. Mr. Sherwood is secretary and treasurer. The charter will be received in a few days. The company will be the Sherwood Bobbin & Manufacturing Company. While the exact location has not yet been decided upon, it is so near that building will be begun in ten or twelve days.

The capital stock of the company is $8,000. They expect to turn out 3000 4000 bobbins per day, and employ twenty-five hands.

Bobbins are made of maple wood, of which there is plenty in this section. The Telegram hopes to be able to announce the completion of the plans for another factory soon.

GUILFORD POPULATION 39,074

A GAIN OF THIRTY-NINE PER CENT. IN TEN YEARS

In 1890 it was 28,052—Larger Increase Than Any Other County in the State Except Mecklenburg and Beaufort in Percentage—Population of Towns Not Yet Announced.

The census figures for North Carolina by counties was given out at Washington yesterday. Guilford's figures are 39,074. In 1890 it was 28,052. This shows an increase of 11,022, or 39 per cent. It is an increase Mecklenburg only stands ahead of us, but we beat her in percentage. Her figures in 1890 were 42,673; in 1900, 55,268, an increase of 12,615, but only 29 per cent. Only Mecklenburg, Wake and Buncombe are ahead of Guilford now. Wake following Mecklenburg with 54,626, and Buncombe having 44,288. Forsyth, which was a little ahead of Guilford in 1890, drops fourth to 35,261.

While the gains in some counties have been slight, the following ones show losses: Camden, Caswell, Chattooga, Currituck, Granville, Northampton, Orange, Vance, Warren, Yadkin. All the cotton mill counties show good gains, while the strictly agricultural ones show losses or insignificant gains.

The population of the whole State is 1,893,810, as against 1,617,947 in 1890, a gain of 275,863, or 17 per cent. The population of towns separately has not yet been announced. All those having a population of over 2,000 will be announced soon. As soon as this announcement is made the guesses in The Telegram's contest over the figures of Greensboro will be canvassed and the suspected party made known.

No city in North Carolina, it is officially announced, has a population of 25,000. Wilmington stands first and it is a close race between Charlotte and Raleigh for second place.

Rumor of a Killing.

THE SHEEP STATES.

New Mexico and Montana Lead, But Ohio Is Doing Very Well.

To-day the seat of the sheep-rearing industry of the union has shifted from the middle west to the plateau region between the Rockies and the Sierras, writes Capt. J. H. McClintock, in Ainslee's. Ohio is still doing very well in the business, with nearly 3,000,000 head, but she has dropped from first to fourth in the list of mutton producing states. New Mexico is at the head, with more than 4,000,000. Montana has nearly as many, while Wyoming leads Ohio closely by a few hundred thousand head. Idaho closely follows in rating. Oregon, California and Texas each has about 2,500,000 sheep. The Navajo Indians of Arizona are a material factor in the wool market. The tribe is wealthy through its flocks. The tribesmen are believed to own little short of 1,000,000 head, the care of the flocks and the weaving of wool being almost the sole occupation of the 22,000 Indians. Singular to relate, only a small part of the Navajo wool crop is worked up at home into the wonderful blankets that have made the tribal name famous. Only the coarser and cheaper blankets are now made of the native wool. The up-to-date Navajo weaver uses Germantown yarn and Diamond dyes.

FINDING OCEAN DEPTHS.

An interesting appliance used in laying cables is the submarine sentry and sounding machine. It is often desirable to keep the cable at an even depth, especially out of shallow water. The "kite," or sounding machine, is set at the minimum depth desired and thrown over the stern. When the boat gets into shallower water than desired the lever at the lower end of the "kite" strikes the bottom, releasing the towline at one end, and allowing the "kite" to come to the surface, at the same time ringing a signal bell on the bridge.

MARRIAGE LAST NIGHT.

Pretty Home Affair in Which Mr. Brown and Miss Wood Are United.

The marriage of Miss Josye Wood and Mr. Edward A. Brown, which occurred at the home of the bride on Spring street yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock, was one of the prettiest of the quiet home weddings of the season. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends were present.

In the parlor, which was tastily decorated in chrysanthemums, Rev. Dr. J. H. Weaver, the close friend, and beloved former pastor of the young couple, performed the ceremony. Miss Wood has, by her graces of mind and heart and charming personality, won a host of friends, who wish her the brightest and best this life can give.

Mr. Brown is a rising young tobacconist who has made Greensboro his home for many years, and has many friends here.

Services Tomorrow.

Four of the churches of South Greensboro—Westminster, Grace, Centenary and Friends, have an established custom of rotating their Thanksgiving Day services. The services tomorrow will be held in Centenary church, conducted by Rev. C. E. Hodgin, pastor of Westminster church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to give thanks with those that will worship in Centenary tomorrow. Services at 11 o'clock.

There will be Thanksgiving services in West Market street church tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

There will be no prayer meeting at West Market tonight.

Shot Himself While Hunting.

Mebane Special to Raleigh Post, 27th.

Mr. George F. Nesbitt, a prominent and wealthy society man of Kingstion, Pa., well and favorably known in shooting circles came to Mebane last Friday with the expectation of spending the shooting season here. Today while in the field three miles from the village, he accidentally shot and killed himself. He was alone when he was shot. When his body was found two of his dogs were watching by him faithfully. His death was evidently instantaneous and painless, the whole load of shot passing through his head. Mr. Nesbitt was a Yale man.

[The corpse was carried by Greensboro today en route to Pennsylvania.]

DROWNED IN A FLOOD.

Eighteen Hundred Feathered Creatures Were Victims of Elemental Fury.

On the night of August 12, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, after northeastern Kansas had been sweltering without rain for over 30 days, the creeks were drying up and the farmers were beginning to grumble about a "drought," a big black cloud loomed up over the northern horizon. Horton was treated to a display of electrical fireworks and then the wind began to blow. A lull followed and Horton went to sleep. At about one o'clock people living along the creek south of town found water suddenly rising on the bedroom floors and in one instance a man carried his wife through the water waist deep to high ground. The dam which held the town water supply gave way; bridges and culverts were swept out. And all this in about 40 minutes.

The other morning ex-Mayor Leverton discovered a dead bird in his path and a closer scrutiny showed more. A neighbor was called to witness and a painful search was picked up. More neighbors arrived and took a hand in the unique harvest. Coal scuttles, wash-boilers, pails and baskets were brought and filled. Sparrows, wrens, blackbirds, robins and every feathered tenant of the grove were represented. One woman picked up 161 birds without moving in her steps. When the count was made it disclosed 1,800 birds.

Expressed His Sympathy. A story about little Prince Edward of York appears in the British Weekly. Not long ago he was taken over a British man-of-war and was much interested in a large, heavily built chest which was shown him. "What does that hold?" he asked the tall officer who accompanied him. "Powder," was the reply. The little boy looked sympathetically at the stalwart figure and observed: "Then do you take powders, too?"

PLUNGED INTO THE OHIO RIVER

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE OF PASSENGERS OF WRECKED TRAIN.

At Midnight the Pittsburg and Cleveland Flyer Goes Off an Embankment to the Bottom of the River—All Passengers Escape, But the Crew Was Injured—Faithful Engineer Lost a Foot.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Beaver, Nov. 28.—Train No. 201, the Pittsburg and Cleveland flyer, with eighty passengers aboard, plunged into the Ohio river a mile west of here at 1:12 this morning. The train was submerged under ten feet of water. There are 21 dead, 69 injured, and ten saved themselves by swimming ashore.

THE REPORT MODIFIED.

Later advices contradict the early reports of loss of life. All the passengers were saved it is said, though badly shaken.

It is remarkable that any escaped. The train went over the embankment while running at a good speed. As it settled, the passengers scrambled for the windows, and a number of them swam ashore.

When the men recovered composure they formed a human chain for the purpose of helping the women in the Pullman coach. The passengers were asleep and could not have realized what had happened till the water reached them.

CLOSING OF THE DISPENSARY.

THE DISCUSSION AS TO WHAT THE BOARD SAID.

Mr. Scales Says That a Very Grave Injustice Was Done—What Was Really Said and Done at the Meeting of the Board With the Members-Elect of the Legislature—Why the Board Asked Till July 1st to Close Up.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

The following editorial appeared in the Daily Record of Saturday. Will you publish it and my reply appended, that the matter may be set straight?

A. M. SCALES.

EDITORIAL IN SATURDAY'S RECORD.

It was thought the dispensary question was settled last August, but it seems not. Its friends say the resolution passed by the Democratic convention in June did not mean that the bill repealing it should go in effect before July 1st of next year, and ask that the representatives-elect so construe it. A meeting was held this morning at which the dispensary board and Messrs. Glenn, Roberson and Whitaker were present, together with Messrs. Kennett, Wilson and Scales, and the members of the Legislature were asked what they expected to do. The result of two hours' deliberation was that they reminded those present that from every stump last August they pledged themselves to abide by the result of the primary; that if a majority said keep the dispensary they expected to retain it, but if the voters said for it to go, one of the first official acts would be to repeal it; that "unconditional repeal" used in the resolution would have said so, in all of which the gentlemen are exactly right. To ask them to do otherwise is to ask them to go back on the pledges made in the campaign and to go back on the spirit and intent of the resolution calling the primary. No notice is required; the people of the county gave due notice on August 2nd last.

It was suggested that the aldermen would not grant license before the next fiscal year—July 1. That has nothing to do with the case. The only thing for the members from Guilford to do is to fulfill their pledges and the instructions of the convention that nominated them.

[REPLY.]

To the Editor of The Record:

Whoever wrote the editorial in your paper a few days ago about the dispensary, did a very grave injustice to more than a half dozen honorable gentlemen, and made several mistakes of fact, which ought not to go unnoticed. In fact although I was invited to attend the meeting and did attend it, I pledge you my word, I scarcely recognized it from your description.

The members-elect of the Legislature or certainly some of them had repeatedly asked some expression from the defeated friends of the dispensary as to the time of closing it, and the meeting of the board and their attorney, Mr. Wilson, with the members of the legislature, grew entirely, as I am informed, out of this desire on the part of the representatives. I was sent for as a friend of all the gentlemen present, and heard all that was said. The members-elect were expressly told that the board did not expect to harass them with delegations, but would state its views and that then the matter would be with the said members. They were not asked what they were expected to do, as you say, and they will all doubtless tell you so, for no answer was expected then; and they did not say what they were going to do, as you say, but expressly said they would consider the matter and notify the board later. No attempt whatever was made to make them go back on their pledges, but it was expressly said that the board expected them to carry out their pledges, entirely and fully. It seems a pity that you should make such a grave charge against honorable men with so little thought as to what the charge involves, and with such heartless flippancy.

The view the board takes is that it is to the interest of the tax payers that it be given ample time, to-wit: until July 1st, to close out the business without an unnecessary sacrifice. It has on hand a stock of about $4,000, and has paid a license tax up to July 1st. The board expecting nothing else, especially in view of the fact that the same time was given to the barrooms. Besides this July 1st is the regular time for the license of barrooms to begin. The resolution of the convention calling the primary fixes no time for closing, and it must be presumed that it intended that a fair and reasonable time be given. It calls only for its "unconditional repeal." That is, that there shall be no conditions, such as leaving it to a vote of the people, etc. The board believes that there is a vast difference between "unconditional repeal" and unreasonable and indecent haste in repealing.

While I still believe that the dispensary is the best solution possible of this important and vexing question, still the majority has voted it down and that settles it. I shall not spend any time in squabbling as to when it shall close, although my belief is that the tax payer is entitled to the same time as was given the barkeeper. The matter is entirely with our Senator and Representatives.

Yours respectfully,
A. M. SCALES.

ORIGIN, OBJECTS AND AIMS.

Of the Order of Knights of Pythias.

ORIGIN.

Our Order was founded February 19, 1864, at Washington, D. C., by Justus H. Rathbone, at a time when "war was in the heart of man and sorrow in his home," when, from ocean to ocean, from lake to gulf, our glorious land engaged in scenes of carnage and death. Brother Rathbone saw in Grecian history the germ of an order that should prove a power in dispelling the wrath of sectional strife and restoring the hearts of men to a basis of universal brotherhood.

The reign of Dionysius, the elder, marked an era of selfishness in the world's history. Following the example of a tyrant, his adherents in the isle of Sicily vied in obliterating from the tablets of their memory every vestige of that noble principle to mankind which recognizes man's fealty to his fellow.

Damon, a Senator of Syracuse, by his opposition to Dionysius in his attempted usurpation of power, was placed under sentence of immediate death.

Pythias, the time-tried friend of Damon, besought the tyrant to grant him a respite that he might bid a last farewell to those he loved. The denial of this request was followed by the most striking exemplification of pure friendship that has ever illuminated the pages of history. Pythias, who well knew the honor of his friend, offered himself as a pledge for Damon's return, agreeing to pay the penalty with his own life should Damon prove false. Dionysius accepted the proffered hostage, placing Pythias in darkness and in chains, while his friend of years hastened to the home where his loved ones dwelt.

His earthly affairs are speedily arranged, the last fond embrace is given, he looks a last look upon his friends, now frantic with grief, and starts to return, but finds that his slave has slain his steed. Syracuse is leagues away, he saw his day of respite fading into night, his friend led to the scaffold, he heard his pledge of honor, the cry of mockery without the prison walls. Crazed with the thought of honor lost, friend and friendship sacrificed, he seized a passing steed and, swifter than the winds of heaven, flew on toward Syracuse and certain death. Ay, more! To the rescue of his friend and the maintenance of his honor—to him sweeter than life and home. As the last moment is called, and the executioner's ax is lifted o'er the head of Pythias he rushes through the gates, springs upon the scaffold, redeems his honor, and saves the life of his friend.

This display of manhood and true courage led captive the tyrant's heart, who remitting the death sentence of Damon, sought admission to their friendship.

This bright spot on the pages of the past was the corner-stone upon which Brother Rathbone "built wiser than he knew." For years the fires burned low upon the altars of the young and struggling brotherhood, but in its present high noon, when from every hilltop the shields of brave and gallant Knights make bright the day of promise, the founder of the Order may rest assured that its ascendant star will never wane.

RANKS.

The secret work consists of three divisions, called ranks, which are symbolic of principles of the Order—Friendship, Charity and Benevolence.

The three ranks—Page, Esquire and Knight—are separate, but necessary to be initiated into all of them to come to a just appreciation of the extent and scope of what this society comprehends and teaches. The intention of this body is to disseminate and teach to all mankind, who are worthy, the doctrines and precepts that are the foundation of this organization, and by so doing give to those principles their true meaning and widest application. The instructions given in the several ranks are a part of the essential elements that go to make up a secret society, and they are conferred upon all who become members, that they may come to a correct understanding of the basis upon which the Order is built. "A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." A true Knight is a friend of his brother Knight, and will ever aid him in all worthy efforts, but will not uphold him in the violation of the law or the disregard of the rules which good society prescribes.

Charity is the perfection of friendship. It is that part of man that enables him to construe the words and actions of others in their least unfavorable light. Without it friendship is of little worth. Deal not harshly with the errors and mistakes of those about you, for our deficiencies but proves the weakness of all humanity.

Benevolence must naturally follow and be a part of the practice of the principles just stated. Our ceremonies, practical in application, grand in language and rich in poetry, impress upon the members of this Order Friendship, not only for one another, but for all mankind—teaching the followers of its doctrines practical charity for fallen humanity. The benevolence of the Order and its members challenges the whole world and merits the gratitude of the widow and the orphan.

The principles of this Order are a part of man's nature, and he needs such an organization to educate and develop his understanding of those principles. Like all other endowments of man, perfection and enjoyments can only be attained by cultivation and discipline.

At this point a word as to the results attained or good accomplished may not be amiss. We recognize the fact that each Order claims to pre-eminence in some particular. Our chief aim is the practice of fraternity and the well-being of those who have part with us. We hold the trust of a brother as a sacred thing, and impress on the minds of the young man struggling for a footing in the world the value of honor, honesty and truth. Our aim is to make men careful of their conduct, encourage them in upright living, and by mild yet firm reproof, make it known that a disregard of right and morals forfeits all claim to our esteem or fraternal consideration. He who practices the principles taught will in his life prove that we are entitled to kindly encouragement in disseminating the principles of Friendship, Charity and Benevolence.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

Be it ordained by the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, That in order that all may know the origin, principles and aims of the Order, the following shall constitute the declaration of principles:

Pythian Knighthood had its conception in the exemplification of the life test of true friendship existing between Damon and Pythias.

Friendship of mutual confidence being the strongest bond of union between man and man, and only existing where honor has an abiding place, is adopted as a foundation principle.

As the ideal knight of olden time was the personification of all the higher and nobler tributes of man's nature, the candidate for knighthood had to prove himself worthy of acceptance by those who value friendship, bravery, honor, justice and loyalty.

The Order Knights of Pythias—founded in Friendship, Charity and Benevolence which it proclaims as its cardinal principles—strives to gather in one mighty fraternity worthy men who appreciate the true meaning of friendship, who are cautious in word and act; who love truth; who are brave in defending right; whose honor is untarnished; whose sense of justice will prevent, to the best of their ability, a personal act or a word injurious to the worthy; whose loyalty to principles, to family, to friends, to their country, and to the constituted authority under which they enjoy citizenship, is undoubted, and who are at times prepared to "do unto others as they would that others should do unto them."

RAILROAD ORGANIZATION RUMOR.

Following the rumor, which has been denied by President Spencer, that the Pennsylvania was about to come into possession of the Southern Railway, it is now floating in the air that a mutual understanding, if not a similarity of ownership, is ahead between the three great Southern lines, the Southern, the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line. The Baltimore Sun of yesterday says:

"A report that created a stir on Saturday among some of the inside interests in railroad properties was that the "mutuality of ownership" feature which has lately come into prominence in railroad management would soon appear in the relations of the Southern Railway, Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line.

"The scurrying around of several men prominent in some of these properties indicated that the plausibility of the story has made a deep impression. Denials did not dispose of the report.

"A financier close to some of the interest in these properties, in discussing the report, said:

"There is a disposition just now to credit almost anything that savors of a deal, and with the public appetite ready to take in such reports, there is always some one clever enough to start a plausible story. So far this report about a mutuality of interests in the Southern railroad situation is largely guess work. But there is some ground for expecting that this may eventually be the settlement at the Southern situation. It is a well known fact that the Atlantic Coast Line and Southern Railway have been working harmoniously for several years.

Whether or not this scheme is now about to materialize is not very important. The main thing is the fact that it is only a question of time till it does. Of course the obstacles to such large accomplishments are always great, but when the advantages to be desired are correspondingly great, the obstacles will be overcome. The people of this section of the South may expect to see the railroad interests of the section under the same management.

A press dispatch from Constantinople saying that the relations between the United States and Turkey are acute, winds up with the remark that the dispatch of the battleship Kentucky to Smyrna has had a marked effect in official circles. It may be remarked that such diplomacy as this is about the only kind that does have a marked effect on official circles at the Porte.

The statement by Vice-President E. St. John that E. D. Lukerhill, former agent of the Seaboard at Fernandina, Fla., embezzled the road out of $50,000, at least breaks the monotony in the announcements of bank defalcations. Such a performance in railroad circles is rare enough to be real news.

The meanest man beneath the stars

'Tis now the time to write a rhyme
On good old pumpkin pie. The question
With me is, can a suffering man
Write such a rhyme with indigestion?

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

PERSONAL MAGNETISM PRO PER.

Its Development and How to Use It
Is the title of a series of scientific lessons just published and offered to the public at a very reasonable price. This is one of the greatest, grandest and most useful sciences ever offered to a knowledge loving people.

Many people will ask "what is this personal magnetism, and what good is there in it," to which we answer that it is the power that brings a man success in his calling; it is the power back of the words of the orator who holds his audience spellbound; it is the power by which the minister of the gospel holds, pleases and enlarges his congregation; it is the power by which the physician convinces his patient of his ability to cure; it is the power back of the words of a conversationalist that convinces his hearers; it is the power that makes a person agreeable to those with whom he comes in contact; it is the natural power that makes one able to see and understand things as you do; it is the power that makes the proficient teacher and instructor; it is the power by which the successful lawyer convinces both court and jury; it is the power by which both merchant and salesman increase their sales; it is the power back of the words of the editor that satisfies his readers and increases his business; it is the power that makes the society lady or gentleman agreeable and fascinating; in short it is the natural unseen power that makes man or woman a ruling power over much. When God commanded man and woman to subdue the earth and everything thereon right then and there he imbued them with the invaluable power of personal magnetism. Man and woman from that moment became a living power, and like all other valuable intellectual faculties it was made latent in each individual and left to be developed as other intellectual faculties are. It is indispensable to success in life to have this most valuable talent developed. The very reason so many people, possessed of otherwise well developed powers, fail in their undertakings, is simply because they never have had developed in them that most valuable power, personal magnetism. Years of research and experience has given rise to the discovery of one of the most scientific, thorough and perfect systems of cultivation of this grand power.

Professor Mac Knight, of the "New York Institute of Science," has recently perfected his new series of lessons which is the promulgation of the only thorough system of learning one how to develop this wonderful power. His new and grand system is now being adopted into all the leading Universities and Colleges and is recommended by their professors as being the only series of the kind ever offered.

A class will be organized in Greensboro for both ladies and gentlemen and the instructions will be given in person by the professor himself—an opportunity rarely offered. The Hammer School of Science and Healing, of High Point, N. C., has inaugurated this system and any one desiring terms for a course of instruction therein may address the above school. Lessons may be taken at your house if desired. Terms reasonable. This is the opportunity of a lifetime.

A GOOD THING.
German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75cts. THE TELEGRAM'S TEA TABLE TALK

"A chronic inconvenience of this town is the lack of competent cooks," said a man who came up town about nine o'clock this morning without any breakfast. "You can get negroes to come today, but they are either gone tomorrow or haven't enough sense to cook a hoe-cake. We've had half a dozen already this month, and my wife had to spend all day yesterday in chasing after another one yet. She at last found one who admitted that she could do any and all kinds of cooking. She promised to come this morning—but I haven't had any breakfast yet."

The dearth of cooks in Greensboro is felt by boarders as well as by housekeepers. That is one of the principal drawbacks in getting board in private families. Housekeepers who would otherwise be glad to take one or two friends or acquaintances to board, will not do so on account of the uncertainty of cooks. And the private boarding houses that depend upon the negro women are often hard put for servants at all.

Within a short time the other day the talker had three different conversations with as many different men, all illustrating from the business experience of each, the truth of the old observation regarding procrastination. First it was Mr. McClamroch, the grate man. He said that it is vain to urge people to put in their grates and prepare for the winter during the pretty weather of the fall. They don't want them fixed till they are ready for and badly needing a fire. Then Architect Gates was met and was asked the news in building circles. "Oh nothing," said he, "people will not lay their building plans in the winter or fall. If they know they are going to begin to build in the spring, instead of having their plans decided upon, drawn and ready to begin when the good weather sets in, they wait till it comes, and then want the plans made in one day and begin building the next." "People won't buy shoes till they get barefooted," said a shoe dealer. "They wear their old shoes and put off getting new ones till a spell of bad weather comes and they have to come down town with their feet wet to be reshod."

If one happens into the City National or the Greensboro National bank of this city some time when Cashier Battle or Cashier Alderman has just received some new bank notes, he will have the pleasure of seeing sheets of money instead of mere bills. The bills come in sheets and are cut apart with scissors. When mutilated bills come into the treasury department at Washington or when fragmentary ones are sent in, they are destroyed and replaced with new bills. When the treasury department gets a badly worn National bank note it is laid aside till $500 of such are received, when the pile is destroyed, and new ones issued, which the bank again puts in circulation.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DIS EASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Some men seem to think it's a feat to foot a bill.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The City Treasurer, on account of the unavoidable delay in the collection of the taxes which were due on the 1st day of October, 1900, finds himself at present short of funds, but by reason of the public spirit and accommodation of the Southern Stock Mutual Insurance Company and the Underwriters of Greensboro, I am able to announce that the said companies will cash at their face value all interest bearing warrants issued since September 1st, 1900, by the city to school teachers, policemen and other city employees, when they are in the hands of the original holders and do not exceed $100 each, provided that this order does not hold good after $3,000 has been expended in cashing the said warrants.

Applications should be made at the bank counter of the Southern Loan and Trust Company.

A PRESENTIMENT.

Boy—Why do you look so sad?
Turkey—I don't know how it is, but something makes me feel that about dinner time tomorrow I am going to feel awfully cut up.

"I sat next to your best girl at the football game the other day," remarked the friend of the star half-back. "Did she enthuse over my playing?" asked the half-back. "Well," remarked the other, dubiously, "when you made that 45-yard run and we were all yelling, she said to me: 'Hasn't he lovely hair!'"

A tall man thinks he is Americanized when he learns to swear.

The disappointed candidate
Is just the very man
Who always grows disconsolate
To think he "also ran."

He was a baggage smasher,
And trunks he'd smashed galore.
A trunk fell on his head one day
And chopped it off. He's 'neath the clay,
Trunkless forevermore.

"THE 'SALT' OF SALTS."

Sleeplessness Cured

Sleeplessness is a serious symptom of nervous collapse and should be taken in hand at once. Opium affords relief at first by deadening the nerves, but this effect is soon lost, meaning increased and dangerous doses, and eventually physical and mental wreck.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt

is an invaluable remedy for Sleeplessness, and does not contain opiates or narcotics. It is Nature's remedy, made from the salts extracted from the juices of pure, fresh fruits, and insures restful, refreshing sleep, by Nature's own methods. Abbey's Salt enriches the blood, increases the circulation, strengthens the nerves and enables the entire system to relax into perfect slumber. Dyspepsia, Constipation and attendant ills are unknown where Abbey's Salt is used.

D. WAGNER, M.D., 507 Main St., Springfield, Mass., says: "Have used Abbey's Salt recently in Nervous Prostration with Wakefulness, Headaches, etc., both of which were controlled by it. After much experience, I heartily recommend it to all physicians as one of our best and most reliable remedies. It has a place among my reliables."

Sold by most druggists or sent by mail. 25c, 50c, and $1 per bottle.

PREVENTED A TRAGEDY.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, O., prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had kept her awake every night. She tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.
